Bridgeford Trust Company, LLC, relies on third parties to provide market values and tax information pursuant to SDCL 55-2-23. Also per SDCL 55-3-45, "If a trust is not subject to court supervision under chapter 21-22, and if no objection has been made by a distribution beneficiary, as defined in this title, of a trust within one hundred eighty days after a copy of the trustee's accounting has been mailed, postage prepaid, to the last known address of such distribution beneficiary, personally, or electronically in accordance with § 15-6-5(d), the distribution beneficiary is deemed to have approved such accounting of the trustee, and the trustee, absent fraud, intentional misrepresentation, or material omission, shall be released and discharged from any and all liability to all beneficiaries of the trust as to all matters set forth in such accounting. The provisions of chapter 55-18 apply to this section. For purposes of this section, the term, accounting, means any interim or final report or other statement provided by a trustee reflecting all transactions, receipts, and disbursements during the reporting period and a list of assets as of the end of the period covered by the report or statement, and including written notice to the distribution beneficiary of the provisions of this section."

Bridgeford Trust Company, LLC ("Bridgeford") provides an omnibus account and bank diversification service to its clients to allow for higher interest and greater FDIC insurance coverage on client funds that are undirected or uninvested. Twenty five percent (25%) of the interest generated from the omnibus accounts is retained by Bridgeford as a subaccounting and diversification fee.
