

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE – KING’S BENCH DIVISION

Claim No: KB-2025-001991 | Appeal No: CA-2025-002562

ALKIVIADES DAVID (Appellant) v MAHIM KHAN & OTHERS (Respondents)

EXHIBIT Z – INTERCONNECTED EVIDENTIARY SYSTEM (MASTER EDITION)

INTRODUCTION

This exhibit addresses record integrity, evidentiary completeness, and procedural fairness across interconnected proceedings.

CORE SUBMISSION

The issue before the Court is the structural absence and fragmentation of evidence within an identifiable system spanning multiple jurisdictions.

SYSTEM PATHWAYS

1. Media Exposure
2. Legal Record Distortion
3. Government Contact
4. Witness Consistency
5. Economic Consistency
6. Investigative Overlap
7. Antiguan Judicial Issues
8. Intellectual Property Exploitation
9. Procedural Commoditization
10. Financial Irregularities
11. Labour Market Control
12. Content Distribution / Narrative Framing
13. Public Communications Infrastructure Use

RECORD DISRUPTION

Key individuals connected to the evidentiary chain are deceased or unavailable, impairing full reconstruction of the record.

WITNESS VULNERABILITY

Certain individuals present with long-standing vulnerability, contributing to fragmented or delayed disclosure.

SCHEDULE 1 – CONSOLIDATED NAME INDEX

Individuals are included based on their appearance within evidentiary materials and pathways. Inclusion does not constitute a finding.

ANNA SMITH (f/k/a Giovanni Palma) – Witness

Barack Hussein Obama II – Contextual political reference

David Boies – Legal corridor

John Branca – IP / media overlap

Les Moonves – Media distribution

Harvey Levin – Media narrative

Louis Freeh – Legal / investigative interface

Gloria Allred – Legal corridor

Anthony Pellicano – Investigative context

Fred Heather – Legal advisory context

Robert Shapiro – Legal network context

CHAIN OF CUSTODY

All exhibits retain original filenames to preserve traceability and evidentiary integrity.

FINAL POSITION

The record is structurally incomplete and materially impaired. Enforcement would be unsafe without further clarification.