Dear colleague,

We would like to inform you that this morning a representative of the debt collection office Zurich 6 attempted to serve on us a payment o Schwyz against Alki.

We informed the debt collection officer that we are no longer representing Alki, and handed over to her a copy of the letter we sent to the (see attachment). The representative did not attempt to serve the payment order and indicated that she would inform the debt collection o representation of Alki.

While we believe that today's event cannot not be construed as a valid attempt of service of the payment order there is still a theoretical r order not to risk an invalid objection, we refused to accept service. To err on the side of caution, we therefore strongly suggest that Alki ta

It seems advisable that Alki, as soon as possible, designates a representative who is entitled to represent him in the ongoing debt collect documents from the debt collection office Schwyz (and the other debt collection offices involved). In order to be on the safe side, it also s the payment order issued by the debt collection office Schwyz within 10 days.

We note that payment orders have already been served on us by the debt collection offices Zug and Oberland. On behalf of Alki we have (documentation already provided to you via the Share Folder).

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Best regards,

Alexander Troller/Matthias Gstoehl/Christian Exner
