About his money, he said that unfortunately his man was blackmailed by John Branca and she would not play what John Branca would say he would keep the money away from her. And because she didn't want to lose their wealth, she played along. So that is what Jermaine said to you directly? One million percent.

So John Branca is holding Catherine Jackson hostage. Since 2014, since we started the litigation, I know this for a fact. Yeah, that's what Jermaine always said.

And I don't think if you have a chance to talk to Jermaine, I can give you his mobile number. Maybe he picks up from you. Yeah, I love Jermaine.

I mean, we have, we've always got on. I've always gone with him. And send me his number.

I'd love to give him a call. I would love to let me call him and let me let me get some. Let me get him some good information.

I'll get him some good news. I'll give him some good news. I even have Alina's number.

I don't have his number. I have Alina's number somewhere. I know because it because it used to pop up when I type out A-L-I.

Or maybe I don't have it. What's that noise? Oh, and then the message to Jermaine saying you gotta call him. Cool.

Yeah, we can we can we can break. We can break break them free and set up a whole new system that is transparent that they don't have to worry about that they own that they control that is theirs. Jermaine.

Every now and then he replies back to my message. He used to anyway. I haven't been contacting him many times, many years, I think.

But you want Alima? But Alima, he divorced her. No, I don't want to. I don't need her number.

I don't need her number. You know, she sent me like Happy New Year this year after like 10 years, nine years. You know, you know, you know why? No idea.

But it was not because of what's happening. What you are going to start getting people from nowhere if it hasn't already started reaching out randomly, wanting to say hi and engage and offering you things, things that people can start offering you shit, weird shit, anything they're going to offer you anything to just distract you from what you want to do and get access to you and fuck with you and control with you. I promise you that's how they operate.

They run a whole psyops fucking thing. You know that, right? I know that. Well, as soon as you start doing this after our call tonight, for sure.

Listen, Giovanni, we are going to put karma. I'm not worried about that, Aki. Come on.

No, no. What I'm saying is this is that the engineering of karma is something that we can control. And this is what we are doing.

You understand? Absolutely. Look, you know that I had this major accident, OK? I wasn't able to work for 27 months, Aki. Me and my wife went through horrible times and so on and everything.

I had the COVID destroyed. Your litigation, the COVID, the war in Russia where, unfortunately, like it or not, me and my wife lost everything we had in Russia. Really? Well, Aki, how can I move money from Russia to Europe? It's impossible.

We are not of that level. You know, but you know, here's the problem. Here's the fucking problem that you know what? You just hit the nail on the head because there are two systems.

There is an unaccountable system and then there is the accountable system that the majority of the world lives by, which is bullshit. Well, OK. And that is part of the economic order in this planet that needs to change.

OK, well, I belong to the people that got fucked up. Me too, me too. I understand.

Me too, amigo. Me too. I get it.

No, I get it. No, no, but I know because it's of a level, you know, you're used to, you know, it's like when you fly on the plane, Aki. You you are first class and all of a sudden, oh shit, I don't even I can't I can't take a plane no more.

Exactly. I know. I know.

I know. But, you know, here's the thing. This but my but me and my wife, let me finish me and my wife problem, then it became then Russia, then when I had my accident, Aki, everybody went away from me and I had to take such heavy medications.

OK, now I tell you what I didn't lose. OK, what I was able to say, I saved my house, your family. No, not the fat one.

Nobody can touch that. OK, family strong over there. All right.

The the roof, the house where I live in, OK, the company in Italy, the buildings.
