Are you recording me with these ugly t-shirts I have on? Relax, I'm only doing the voice and the picture will not be seen by anybody, except me late at night. All right, so, carry on please. I would like you please to theorize or factualize, however you want to call it, whatever you're going to tell me.

This is the point, okay? So, what I was telling you, so, I got a little Johnny that is involved, I meet his father, okay, then somehow you go down the line, okay, and you tell me that there is a girl that is Italian, half Italian, okay, that is accusing you into a litigation of sexual harassment, which I don't buy for a second that has ever happened, and then you say that little Johnny is behind the girl, right? Yeah. Or something like that, correct? Yep, well, it's the same people. Okay, so, it's Tony Randa and it's little Johnny's network of people.

Little Johnny is the first person I meet when I come to America together with that Cooper guy, okay? Did I give you the email? Listen, I'm just going to give it to you, what the fuck. Are you forwarding it to me? Ah, forward, okay, forward, I can't forward this email, it's not connected. Okay, well, save as and send to me on WhatsApp the file, you know what I mean? Yeah, well done, wait a minute, maybe I can do something, stay there.

I'm going to find my glasses, should I say, where are my glasses, by the way? Cancel, okay, it's too, it won't work. Oh, that's much better, now I can see, and I realize that my camera's not working. Okay, are you there? Yeah, I'm here.

I lost you. Yeah, I'm trying to, wait.
