Re: Jane Doe vs. Alkiviades David et al. case No. 20STCV37498, request for complete copy of client file.

Dear Mr. Heather:

I am writing to you to demand a complete copy of my client file for the case Jane Doe vs. Alkiviades David et al.

My demand includes any and ALL discovery, any and ALL emails, text messages, hand written notes, the procedural posture of the case, any and ALL ADA Accommodation requests and or ADA documents filed with the court in order to obtain my ADA Accommodations, outstanding discovery to be conducted, investigative reports, any and ALL depositions taken Plaintiff-witnesses-or any individuals, any and ALL subpoenas that were sent out on my behalf, any and ALL recordings of any sort (video and/or audio) any electronic stored data for this case, including other cases that you had been working on, for me.

I further demand that you provide me with any and ALL emails, text messages, internal memos, defense strategy, transcripts, minute orders, stipulations, handwritten notes, notes from in chambers with the judge, negotiations and or recordings, by audio or videos that are in your possession, your law firm's possession, your paralegals' and or employees'/associate attorney's, of counsel and or office manager's possession, including but not limited to Patricia Weil, Peter Weil and Robert Shapiro and/or others, who have in their possession or stored at another location or held by third party.

I demand any and ALL proposed offers to compromise or settlement offer that had been made by Plaintiff's counsel, from the initial filing of the civil complaint, through the alleged, Trial in June of 2024. I request any and ALL information that the firm has in its possession for my cases, to be provided to me, upon turning over my client file, to Mathew W. Huzaineh.

Due to limited storage, and to help the environment, I request that you upload the complete copy of my client file onto USB drive(s) and deliver to the Law Offices of Matthew W. Huzaineh, 626 Wilshire Blvd, Ste 410, Los Angeles, CA 90017-2915, by 5:00 pm on Monday July 22, 2024.

In addition to the demand for a complete copy of my file, I demand ALL billing invoices for this case, from the inception of this case, until I terminated your services, in December 2023.

In closing, you are hereby put on notice not to destroy, delete or alter any documents, evidence, electronic stored documents/ evidence and or emails, that are in your possession, in possession of another person, or stored at another location, which are related to the case Jane Doe vs. Alkiviades David et al., included any other cases that you had represented me in and/or consulted for, on my behalf. Preserve ALL original emails, letters and information, related to this case and other cases which you had worked on for me or consulted on my behalf.

Thank you in advance for your anticipated cooperation.

Very truly yours,
