Dear Rea,

As I have already informed you, our initial application for the auction to be suspended was rejected and we have filed another motion before the Court of Appeals, which you have received and will be judged on November 23, 2023. I hereby send you our appeal (attached) with an english translation. This is an APPEAL provided by the European Regulation 44/2001 applying in the Greek Republic.

According to the article 684 ff. of the Greek civil procedure law, the applicant is allowed, in case his application for suspension of the auction is rejected, to file a request to the Presiding Judge of the Court Of Appeals, seeking to suspend the auction until a judgement of his appeal is issued. We are presenting ourselves tomorrow in the morning, acting as Alkis' attorneys, before the Presiding Judge of the Court of Appeals, requesting a temporary order, before the closing of the auction, which has been set for 12:00 pm, to suspend the procedure until the trial on November 23, 2023.

In case this will not be successful, we still have the right to file a motion against the auction seeking to invalidate this procedure until a judgement of the Court Of Appeals will be issued after the trial on November 23, 2023.

As you understand, there is no ownership transferred before a final judgement of our motions.

I will keep you posted at any steps we make and I am really thankful for your kind support in our efforts for Alki's property in Spetses.

Thanks and best regards.
