

SWISSX GLOBAL LEGAL PACK

Criminal Complaint – Antigua | Court of Appeal Notice – UK | Appellate Notice – California

Alkiviades (Alki) David | 27 March 2026

This document constitutes a coordinated, cross-jurisdictional legal action engaging criminal law, appellate procedure, and evidentiary integrity across Antigua & Barbuda, the United Kingdom, and the United States.

SECTION I – ANTIGUA (CRIMINAL COMPLAINT)

Reasonable grounds exist to suspect evidence tampering, obstruction of justice, and interference with judicial process in Claim ANUHCV2025/0149.

Relief Requested:

- Immediate CID investigation
- Preservation of all records
- Review of AG Chambers conduct
- Cross-border coordination

SECTION II – UNITED KINGDOM (COURT OF APPEAL)

This Notice informs the Court of material criminal developments affecting evidential integrity and enforcement fairness.

Authorities:

- Ladd v Marshall [1954] 1 WLR 1489
- CPR 83.7
- CPR 52.21

SECTION III – UNITED STATES (CALIFORNIA)

Respondent default under Rule 8.220 and parallel criminal proceedings require appellate consideration and judicial notice.

SIGNED:

Alkiviades (Alki) David – Digitally Signed (Disabled)