(ALL-IN-ONE SUBMISSION: RECORD INTEGRITY, WITNESS EVIDENCE, DISABILITY, AND FAIRNESS)

Date: April 2, 2026

This consolidated submission brings together all supplemental matters previously filed to assist the Court in evaluating the integrity of the evidentiary record and the fairness of the proceedings below.

I. CORE ISSUE

The issue before the Court is whether the judgment below can safely stand given the now clarified evidentiary position.

II. KEY DEFICIENCIES

The record omitted: (1) Carl Dawson's testimony directly contradicting central allegations; (2) medical evidence confirming traumatic brain injury; (3) communications showing counsel awareness and breakdown.

III. MEDICAL CONTEXT

Medical reports establish a documented neurological condition affecting capacity and participation.

IV. REPRESENTATION BREAKDOWN

Contemporaneous communications demonstrate failure to properly advance material evidence.

V. CONSEQUENCE

The judgment cannot safely stand on an incomplete evidentiary record.

VI. LEGAL BASIS

Engages Ladd v Marshall, Article 6 ECHR, and the Court's duty to prevent injustice.

VII. CONCLUSION

The Court is invited to consider the full evidentiary position and ensure a fair determination.

STATEMENT OF TRUTH

I believe that the facts stated are true.

Filed personally due to traumatic brain injury and resulting disability.
