Dear Mr David,

Your report to the SRA about Mark Stephens of Howard Kennedy LLP (and others) - update

Thank you for the nine emails you have sent since I alerted you to my period of annual leave on 27 February 2026 and today, 13 March 2026, I sent this late in the day but believed you would prefer an acknowledgment as soon as I was able to give it.

As I have previously explained to you, sending large volumes of emails without allowing time to process these and for you to receive a status update is not ideal.

I need also to remind you that we do not intervene in legal disputes. You are currently engaged in a series of these. We have suggested that the SRA will intervene on your behalf and represent you in some capacity but your legal disputes and related procedural issues are for the conduct of our solicitors and / or firms following the conclusion of your legal disputes.

For avoidance of doubt, I have made this point to you on many occasions to make sure that you can obtain independent legal advice.

As an update about your file, I will be in communication with the key firm next week and will be waiting on its reply. I will consider this an update for March 2026) but otherwise do not have any scheduled leave and do intend to resolve your report at the earliest opportunity.

Your report has been with me since 6 October 2025. We were experiencing a large volume of reports when you submitted yours which explains the delay more than might be expected and am sorry for this.

While the volume and frequency of communications have contributed to the delay, on the understanding that you are unlikely to have crucial information for your report in the next two weeks.

Yours sincerely,

Kirsty Price (Miss)
