

FINAL STITCHED FILING

APPELLANT'S CONSOLIDATED SUBMISSION

EVIDENTIAL FAILURE, SYSTEMIC DISTORTION, AND APPLICATION FOR RELIEF

I. OVERVIEW

This submission addresses a materially incomplete evidential record.

II. WITNESS STRUCTURE

Direct, Financial, Procedural, and Continuity witnesses converge.

III. CONVERGENCE OF EVIDENCE

Independent witnesses align on core issues.

IV. SYSTEMIC EVIDENTIAL DISTORTION

Non-presentation, counsel failure, witness pressure.

V. CROSS-OVER PATTERN

Recurring individuals across business, media, and legal contexts.

VI. MEDICAL / PRESSURE FACTORS

Impact on fairness and participation.

VII. FINANCIAL COERCION

Economic pressure before adjudication.

VIII. SDNY PROCEEDINGS

Parallel dismissal supports scrutiny.

IX. US APPELLATE CONTEXT

Focus on completeness of record.

X. FRESH EVIDENCE

Satisfies Ladd v Marshall.

XI. NATIONAL IMPORTANCE

Cross-border and systemic implications.

XII. RELIEF SOUGHT

Permission for evidence, recognition of incomplete record, escalation of investigations (Met Police, CID Antigua, Dallas PD), notification of Mac Warner, Curt Weldon, and matters involving John Quirk.

XIII. FINAL SUBMISSION

The Court is invited to determine the matter on a complete evidential record.