EXCLUSIVE: Royal Antigua & Barbuda CID Responds To Shocking Evidence Bundle Exposing Antigua CSAM & Fixed Sports Betting Blackmail Ring

By Max Schiffon

MAR 27, 2026

A critical development has emerged in the growing SwissX criminal complaint saga: the Criminal Investigations Department (CID) in Antigua and Barbuda has formally responded, directing that the matter be escalated to the Commissioner of Police, Everton Jeffers.

A rapidly escalating legal confrontation spanning Antigua, the United Kingdom, and the United States has entered a new phase, as a final non-political criminal complaint bundle has now been formally submitted to the Criminal Investigations Department (CID) in Antigua and Barbuda.

Steadroy Benjamin is referenced in Robert Coram's Caribbean Time Bomb, a powerful exposé that examines corruption, political power, and U.S. involvement in Antigua. His inclusion connects him to the book's broader portrait of the figures and forces that shaped the country's political landscape.

A criminal complaint now before authorities in Antigua and Barbuda alleges that Mr. Phillips submitted a draft order for signature after removing the Executive UPP Party members from the list, despite what Alkiviades David says was an already recognized and properly served defendant structure.

The wider SwissX dossier frames the matter as possible evidence tampering, obstruction of justice, abuse of process, and cross-border interference tied to Antigua, the UK, and California.

David says the stamped red original showed 14 names, including the UPP Party as the 14th defendant, and that this name was later cut from the version put before the judge. His case is simple: Mr. Phillip had no right to rewrite the defendant list. If that allegation is true, this was not editing. It was interference with a live court record.

David says the change was not just political. It was surgical. By removing a defendant allegedly tied to the acts of defamation and fraud, he says the altered order damaged his jurisdiction argument and changed the structure of the case without lawful authority. The CID bundle separately states the complaint is being made strictly on a non-political basis, as a matter of rule of law, judicial integrity, and unlawful interference.

The matter has now been pushed beyond ordinary complaint intake and up to the Commissioner of Police, marking a serious escalation. The SwissX dossier calls for immediate investigation, preservation of evidence, and identification of responsible parties.

The human cost is severe. David says he is profoundly disabled and has been ground down by years of litigation. A November 2, 2023 psychiatric note prepared for judicial use states that he showed elevated paranoia and persecutory-idea scales on MMPI-2 testing, potentially linked to continuous litigation, while also affirming that he retains full capacity to comprehend and deal with reality.

The core question is now brutally clear:

Who changed the defendant list, under what authority, and why?

Because if a court order was altered to remove a defendant and weaken jurisdiction, that is not sharp practice.

That is the kind of conduct that can cross into perverting the course of justice.

undersigned by Justice Rene Williams of Antigua & Barbuda High Court. He is also judging the Alpha Nero lawsuit.

Zachary Phillips Crown Counsel at Attorney General's Chambers, Ministry of Legal Affairs accused of evidence tampering and perversion of justice

This follows the submission of a multi-layered evidentiary package alleging transnational obstruction of justice, evidence tampering, and coordinated legal interference across Antigua, the United Kingdom, and the United States.

The submission strengthens an already explosive dossier alleging evidence tampering, obstruction of justice, and coordinated cross-border legal interference tied to High Court proceedings and related international litigation.

New Filing: CID Criminal Conspiracy Complaint Bundle

The latest submission emphasizes a critical point—this is not political, but purely a matter of law:

- The filing explicitly states:

0:00 / 21:46

Above: Jan 16th Court hearing where Mr. Phillips delivered the forgeries. New filing builds directly on the previously submitted SwissX global criminal dossier. Alki David representing the SwissX Lawsuit.

From: Alkiviades (Alki) David
Date: 27 March 2026

Together, these documents form a coordinated evidentiary package now before law enforcement.

Allegations Expand: From Courtroom to Public Narrative

The latest bundle introduces a significant new dimension:

Public Defamation and Interference

According to the CID submission:

- A recorded broadcast allegedly claimed the legal proceedings were:
  - “fabricated”
  - a “fishing expedition”
  - designed to “extort”

The complaint asserts these statements are:

- Demonstrably false
- Contradicted by court records
- Timed to coincide with active litigation constraints

This raises a new question for investigators:

Was public messaging used as part of a broader strategy to influence or undermine judicial proceedings?

Three Jurisdictions, One Pattern

Across all filings, a consistent pattern is alleged:

Antigua (Criminal Anchor)

- High Court Claim ANUHCV2025/0149
- Alleged irregularities in filings and party records
- CID investigation now formally engaged

United States (California Appeal)

- Appellate default risk under Rule 8.220
- Potential for decision based solely on appellant submissions

United Kingdom

- Proceedings paused/adjourned
- Conduct of legal representatives under scrutiny

Core Allegations Remain Unchanged—but Strengthened

Across all documents, the central claims are consistent:

- Evidence Tampering
- Obstruction of Justice
- Abuse of Legal Process
- Cross-Border Coordination
- Narrative Manipulation via Media

The addition of the non-political bundle reframes the dispute as:

“ A rule-of-law issue, not a political dispute ”

Why the “Non-Political” Framing Matters

The explicit disclaimer in the CID filing is not incidental—it is strategic.

By removing political framing, the complaint:

- Forces authorities to treat the matter strictly as criminal and evidentiary
- Neutralizes potential defenses based on political interpretation
- Strengthens the case for international cooperation, including possible INTERPOL involvement

Mounting Pressure on Authorities

With:

- A formal CID complaint
- A comprehensive evidence dossier
- A non-political declaration
- Active proceedings in three jurisdictions

Authorities are now under increasing pressure to:

- Preserve evidence
- Open full criminal inquiries
- Coordinate across borders

Critical Timeline Ahead

Several key developments are approaching:

- April 1, 2026 (U.S.) — appellate default deadline
- Ongoing UK appellate positioning
- CID's next steps in Antigua

Shockya Analysis

What began as a complex civil dispute has now evolved into something far larger:

*A test case for whether legal systems across multiple countries can withstand coordinated pressure—legal, procedural, and narrative.

The addition of the non-political complaint bundle removes ambiguity:

This is no longer about perception.

It is about evidence, process, and accountability.

Final Word

The SwissX filings now present a unified argument:

- The courts have been engaged
- The evidence has been submitted
- Law enforcement has been notified

What remains is the response.

And that response may determine whether this case becomes:

- A contained dispute

—or—

- A landmark international investigation into the integrity of modern legal systems.
